ORDER:

The Government is committed to ensure that fruits of development reach the poorest of the poor, marginalised and the most vulnerable sections of the society through people-centred governance. Over the years, Janmabhoomi programme has proved to be an effective such programme through which people's voluntary participation enabled them to obtain the desirable assistance from the government. Inspired by the success of earlier rounds of Janmabhoomi programme, government decided to conduct yet another round (5th round) of this people-centred initiative from 2nd to 11th January, 2018 in all GPs/wards in the state, in a festive atmosphere.

2. This round of 'Janmabhoomi Maa Vooru' programme focuses on ten key themes- one theme a day wherein theme-related activities would be organised in all forms. Government is keen to utilise this platform and make it a big success by organising different sports/games on all days of the programme for Men and Women in different age groups. Illustrative list of sports and games is annexed. However, on 7th of January, 2018 at a convenient place in all mandal headquarters 5K-Run will be organised between 6.30 A.M. to 7.30. A.M. and required arrangements for first aid, drinking water, traffic regulation and adequate care at the finishing line will all be carefully planned by District Collectors.

3. From the illustrative list of sports and games, competitions will be conducted for Men and women in three age categories i.e, below 25 years, 25 to 50 years, 50 and above.

4. In order to make the event a big success and enable greater participation, the following indicative operational guidelines be adopted:

1. The events at all Gram panchayats will be organized under the supervision of PLT(PET), MPDO under the overall supervision of Sarpanch of gram panchayat.
2. The events at all Gram panchayats will be organized from 6.30 AM to 9.00 AM and 4.30 PM to 6.00 PM.
3. The Venues are School Play fields, Community centres, Anganwadi centres and such other common areas. Playfields taken up under MGNREGS may be utilised for the conduct of these events.

(P.T.O)

4. Competitions will be conducted following the normal rules of the respective sports associations.
5. Prize distribution will be on 11th January, 2018 at all mandal headquarters.
6. The funds for organizing competitions within and between the gram panchayat will be met from DSA funds apart from Janmabhoomi funds.
7. The education department is advised to give suitable instructions to Physical Literacy Teachers(PLTs) and their supervisory staff to make the events a grand success. It seems there are zonal events planned by the education department earlier that need to be postponed.
8. The District Collectors are requested to guide the conduct of competitions picking on the disciplines which are popular locally. One PLT may be allotted for this purpose. Any play material required can be procured locally by following available government instructions.
9. The District administration shall ensure participation of public representatives in conduct of the competitions and in prize distribution.
10. All the events shall be conducted in a festive environment and make them a grand success.
